

The home screen displays a picture with a title and a button. Pressing the button takes you to a list view that allows you to select a type. Pressing a type takes you to the list of all the pokemon of that type in the zoo. It is displayed in a recycler view. Pressing a pokemon will open up its description where it will tell you its name, type and signature move. There is also a button to press to hear its cry.

